DAVIS THEATRE TODAY.

Big Bill of Keith Vaudeville and Triangle Photo Plays-New Show Tomorrow-Four Complete Shows on Thanksgiving Day at 1.30, 3.15, 6 and Follow the crowd and you will be sure to land at the Davis theatre, and when you get there you will see one of the finest vaudeville and photo play billis ever seen in this city. The head-line attraction is Roger Gray and Company, four people, in a clever comedy act that is a winner. They sing, dance, and hand out some good comedy that is entirely different from anything ever seen here, and are making a big hit during their brief stay. Another big timer is Eugenie LeBlanc, a dainty miss who does an eccentric comedy act with several changes of costume. The third act is Hill and Sylvany, who present a novel variety offering performing many difficult feats on the old fashloned wheel. In the photo plays the feature is called A Vagabond Prince and H. B. Warner is the star. This is a five part Ince production and is up to the usual two reel Keystone comedy.

For the last half of the week another big bill is booked. The vaudeville consists of the Five Kitamuras, the premier Japanese Risley performers of the world, the stage settings and wardrobe used in this act are unsurpassed and are valued at six thousand dollars. The second act is Francisco-Follow the crowd and you will be sure to land at the Davis theatre, and sists of the Five Kitamuras, the premier Japanese Risley performers of the world, the stage settings and wardrobe used in this act are unsurpassed and are valued at six thousand dollars. The second act is Francisco-Redding and Company in the delightful comedy sketch, Honorah. This is one of the biggest laughing hits in vaudeville today. The third act is the Pesce Brothers in a musical offering entitled the Street Musicians. All the three acts are good and will make a splendid programme for the holiday. The Triangte feature photo play is Norma Talmadge in Firty-Fifty, a drama of Bohemia, married life, and divorce courts. To complete the show is the latest Chaplin comedy, Behind the Screen is not a scream, its a hord. Take the face the stage of the min-strels at high noon on the opening day, and it is promised that this display will be well worth seeing. Seats

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Anna C. Nilsson in The Scarlet Road. Special Five Reel Feature Today and Thursday.

A very fine picture programme has been booked for the Auditorium for to-day and Thanksgiving when Anna Q. Nilsson with Della Connor will appear in George Kleine's, The Scarlet Road, a story of Broadway and the white lights.

A hangman's noose, dangling from the ceiling, met Harry Tremaine's gaze as he entered his father's hunt-ing lodge in the wilds of Montana, whither he had been directed by a letter from his father which accom-named a heavest of $200,000.

whither he had been directed by a letter from his father which accompanied a bequest of $200,000.

"When you have dissipated this fortune, go to my hunting lodge in Montana, break down the cabin door and there you will find a solution of your trouble." Thus wrote the father, and his prophetic judgment proved acurate because the young chap did dissipate quickly, in fast living, the fortune left to him. He went then to his father's hunting lodge and found there awaying him—a hangman's noose, dangling from the ceiling. Around this is woven an intensely interesting story told in the Kleine photodrama, The Scarlet Road. There are many other situations fully as dramatic as the above in The Scarlet Road. A very romantic tale is blended with the more stirging signations and adds interest to the picture in its entirety. Malcolm Duncan, formerly supporting Harrison Grey Flske, is with Anna Q. Nileson and Della Connor, featured in The Scarlet Road.

Other pictures on the bill will be George Larkin in Grant the Palice De.

The Scarlet Road.

Other pictures on the bill will be George Larkin in Grant the Police Reporter, a picture replete with hair raising episodes. Views of foreign lands and a Krazy Kat cartoon comedy will complete the bill. There will be four shows Thanksgiving day, at 1.30, 3, 7 and 8.30.

BREED THEATRE.

Special Holiday Bill For Today and Thursday-Four Shows Thanksgiving Day, 1.30, 3, 7, and 8.30 p. m.

As a special holiday attraction the Breed will present today and tomorrow the magnetic little star, Mabel Taliaferro, in the Dawn of Love. This is Miss Taliaferro's newest production and is the first to be produced with the popular star since God's Half Acre. The Dawn of Love is the joint work of Channing Pollock and Rennold Wolf and is a powerful story of dering and desperate adventure in five absorbing acts.

In this production Miss Taliaferro has an unusually fascinating part to play, it is that of Jacqueline, nicknamed "Jack," who lives with her father, Miles Allen, in a tiny fishing village. She wears a mixture of boys' clothes and girls' clothes and is perfectly happy as she drives her pet goat over the rocks. She meets John Lang, a government official on the trail of smugglers, with whom she falls in love, and whom she believes to be a fisherman. Ward Jennings, a native shipowner, jealous of John's attentions to Jack, revenges himself by slandering John and revealing the whereshoute of owner, jealous of John's attentions to Jack, revenges himself by slandering John and revealing the whereabouts of the smugglers to the government. In a fight between the government and the smugglers, Jack's father is shot, due she believes to John. After a series of incidents John clears himself in her favor and at the close of the picture all ends happily.

The Breed will also present the seventh episode of The Crimson Stain Mystery, which is fully as sensational and startling as any of the preceding chapters.

Chapters.
On Thursday, Thankegiving day, the Breed will have four shows. Matinee at 1.30 and 3, and evening at 7 and 8.30. All seats at all perform will be ten cents.

NEIL O'BRIEN'S MINSTRELS. Davis Theatre, Friday Evening, De-

At the Davis theatre, Neil O'Brien's Great American Minstrels will be seen on Friday evening, December 1st. Manager Oscar F. Hodge promises that there will be an entirely new scenic production for the edification of the admirers of Mr. O'Brien and his company of singers and dancers and there will not be an old joke or an old song on the entire programme. Some of the features for this season will be a new singing and dancing act called The Ebony Yacht Club, which is produced by James Gorman, and which will enlist the services of ten of America's greatest dancers and will also introduce the female impersonator Cras. Hilliard, who will wear a number of new and stunning gowns to dazzie the eyes of the feminine portion of the sudience.

There will be a parade of the min-strels at high noon on the opening day, and it is promised that this dis-play will be well worth seeing. Seats on sale today at 10 a. m. Prices 25c

Think lovely thoughts, that every day be blest;
Look thou for God, nor fansy Him concealed;
Along earth's tommon way the flowers and grass will breathe His name to thee when thou shalt pass.
To thy divinest self He stands revealed.
His conquering power through love made manifest.

Ullckety click, I am back again chewing
The last of the food I so hastily bit.
Surrounded by infants their clamor renewing.
I find no space left for to stand or to sit.

Nervous and mad in my helpless condition
I pray to the Lord from whom blessings flow.
That all kindergartens may go to perdition.
